

1930

Established a well-baby clinic for the Red Cross and served as volunteers. Sponsored an art exhibition with work by Clayton Spicer, Maurice Decker and Waldo Pierce. Health and welfare projects continued.

1931

Braille projects discontinued when taken over by Association for the Blind. Another art show - a loan exhibition of religious art from the Roerich Museum. Started a Children's Theatre program using League members in the cast and original script. Cornelia Otis Skinner presented "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" as a Ways and Means program. Community services for Williamsport Hospital, Red Cross, Visiting Nurses' Association and Crippled Children's Society continued.

1932

This year's cultural program - a poster exhibition (West Indian travel posters) and portraits by Clayton Spicer. Same community services continued.

1933

Volunteer casework for Crippled Children's Society added to transportation service. Protective home for juveniles discontinued by County Commissioner. Service to health agencies goes on.

1934

Started second well-baby clinic for Red Cross in Newberry - continued other community service work.

1935

Financial aid given to Social Service workers at Williamsport Hospital--a "petty cash" account to cover emergencies. Christmas Toys project initiated--collecting, repairing, and painting donated toys for needy children of community. Clinics, other services maintained.

1936

The Junior League of Williamsport became incorporated. Sponsored loan exhibition from Museum of Modern Art--Mexican frescoes by Diego Rivera. Volunteer programs continued.

1937

Health services maintained. Brought Florence Frazier Mudge to Williamsport in a dramatic recital of "Der Meistersinger."

1938

Housing Survey of Williamsport done at request of Social Service Bureau and published as "How They Live." Work in clinics continued.

1939

League organized Motor Corps for Red Cross in addition to other clinic work.